Live From Linden Hills: It's Linden Hills Live!

Fun Times on 3 Thursdays

Mark your calendars for the 3rd Thursday of June, July, and August, starting with June 18 from 6:30 to 9:00pm. That's when the Linden Hills Business Association is sponsoring Linden Hills Live, giving you the chance to see some of your most talented neighbors perform. It's happening in the parking lot between Zumbro and the Co-op.

A Ride By Night

PJ Party and Moonlight Trolleys

Como-Harriet Streetcar Line offers an adventure for young riders and old-fashioned romance for the young at heart.

For the kids, it's a PJ Party at 7pm on Thursday June 18. Milk and cookies on the station platform, a trolley ride, and a bedtime story from children's author Phyllis Root. Jammies optional, but encouraged. Tickets $5, available at Wild Rumpus.

For the romantics, it's a Moonlight Ride on Saturday July 11 at 10 pm -- a date like they did them in the good old days. $5 tickets available at the Linden Hills station.

About Lake Harriet

A Couple of Things to Check Out

In case you hadn't heard, they're making summer music again at the Pavilion. Check here to find out who's playing when.

And a reminder: this spring the Parks and Recreation Board created the Lake Harriet Citizen's Advisory Council to work on things like concessions and the general atmosphere of the lake area. Here's where you can check into the ideas they're working on and their discussion of a master plan for the future of the lake area.

Explore Lakewood Cemetery

LH History Walking Tour

Impressive, haunting, beautiful and a who's who of the people who shaped the Lake District. That's all part of Lakewood Cemetery, if you know how to look.

This Linden Hills History Walking Tour is your chance to explore the cemetery's monuments and stories. It's Wednesday June 24 at 6:30 pm starting at Lakewood Cemetery Chapel. Historian Peter Sussman will lead a mile and a half tour. Click to learn more. or call JoEllen at 612-926-0646. And it's free.

Secrets of the Bathroom

Help With Fighting Dutch Elm Disease

The key to protecting your trees from Dutch Elm Disease is keeping out the beetles that cause it. A treatment applied once every three years can do that, and now's the time of year to do it.

The Linden Hills Environment Committee will help cover the cost with a $50 donation to any resident who sends a receipt to the LHiNC Environment Committee, P.O. Box 24049, Minneapolis, MN 55424. Rainbow Tree Company gives Linden Hills residents a 25% discount on the treatment.

A Summer Project for the Kids?

Woodworking at Wonderment

A chance for kids ages 9 and up to learn woodworking skills working on projects like sword & dagger making, walking sticks, backyard swings, sling shots, wind cars, or whatever else a kid can dream up.

It's Tuesday through Thursday, July 14th, 15th & 16th, 10:30 am - 2:30 pm.

The fee is $125.

Call 612-929-2707 to register.

Cabinet

So what's really inside all those bottles and bars and tubes of lotions and soaps and sunscreens? What works, and what may be cause for concern?

You can find out at the next meeting of Linden Hills EcoParents.

Jesse Avery, wellness manager for National Cooperative Grocers Assoc, will have some advice about things to look for and things to avoid when buying these kinds of products. He should know, since he advises co-ops on what to offer to their customers. It's Tuesday June 30 from 6:30 to 8:30 pm at the Linden Hills Park Building.

Celebrating Summer Solstice

Celebrate the longest day of the year with "Baptism by Fire" led by Steven Johnson with a fire dance by the Illumination Fire Troupe and music by Michelle Dunkirk, to be followed by the "Rhythm of Love Drum Jam" led by Gary Chisholm.

It's at Lake Harriet Spiritual Community Friday, June 19 at 8 pm.

Admission for the entire event is $10.

Looking Ahead

Making Salsa

Linden Hills Co-op invites you to share your favorite salsa recipes using local ingredients at the second annual La Vida Local Salsa Competition on Thursday, July 16. It's part of the Linden Hills Live event for July.

Categories include best tomato-based salsa, best fruit salsa and best use of local ingredients.

Information and entry forms are at www.lindenhills.coop.

Planning The 9-11 Tribute

The 8th Annual 9-11 Tribute will take place again on Friday evening September 11th 2009 at 7 pm at the Lake Harriet Band Shell. Manny Laureano will conduct the orchestra and John Hoffacker will conduct the chorus. Rehearsals will begin in late August.

If anyone is interested in volunteering to help out as part of the orchestra or chorus, or in some other way, please e-mail:
